

Are you happy to proceed?
I am happy to proceed.
1. Do you agree that this guidance clearly sets out what is required of health and care organisations to comply with the data protection transparency principle?
Agree
2(a). Do you agree that this guidance provides a clear definition of transparency and privacy information?
Agree
2(b). Does the distinction between transparency information and privacy information make sense to you?
Yes
3. Do you agree that this guidance provides useful additional information to the Health & Social Care sector that is not part of our existing guidance on the principle of transparency and the right to be informed?
Agree
4. Do you agree that this guidance is balanced between the separate areas of health and social care?
About right
5. Do you agree that the use of the terms must, should and could in this guidance clearly defines the ICO's expectations in the legislative requirements section and that the terms are applied consistently throughout the guidance?
Agree
6. Do you agree with the definitions we have provided on openness and honesty? Are the examples of how you can demonstrate that you are being open and honest useful and accurate in the context of health and care?
Agree
7. Do you agree with that the section on harms is useful for organisations when considering the risks of failing to provide sufficient transparency material?
Agree
8. Do you agree that the section on patient engagement provides useful information to help organisations develop transparency information that responds to people's needs and priorities?
Agree
9. Do you agree that the section on providing transparency information sets out clearly how organisations should approach the delivery of transparency and privacy information?
Agree
10. Do you agree that the transparency checklist provides a useful summary of the guidance and a mechanism to assess an organisation's transparency level?
Agree

13. To what extent do you agree that the impact assessment summary table adequately scopes the main affected groups and associated impacts of the guidance?
Agree
14. Can you provide us with any further evidence for us to consider in our impact assessment?
No
16. Are you acting on behalf of an organisation?
Yes
17. Are you answering as: (tick all that apply)
An organisation or person processing health data
18. Please specify the name of your organisation (optional):
Healthcare Inspectorate Wales
19. How would you describe your organisation's size?
10 to 249 members of staff
21. Who in your organisation needs to read the guidance? Please provide job titles or roles, rather than names.
Staff at all grades.
22. To what extent (if at all) do data protection issues affect strategic or business decisions within your organisation?
Data protection is a major feature but only in specific circumstances
23. Do you think the guidance set out in this document presents additional:
benefit(s) to your organisation

24. Could you please describe the types of additional costs or benefits your organisation might incur?
Not Applicable
25. Can you provide an estimate of the costs or benefits your organisation is likely to incur and briefly how you have calculated these?
Not Applicable
Do you have any other comments you would like to make?
Healthcare Inspectorate Wales is the independent inspectorate and regulator of healthcare in Wales, as such it is important that we are kept informed about the guidance development and associated legislative requirements placed on anyone working in health care who has a role in delivering transparency information to the public.

