

Are you happy to proceed?

I am happy to proceed.

1. Do you agree that this guidance clearly sets out what is required of health and care organisations to comply with the data protection transparency principle?

Agree

2(a). Do you agree that this guidance provides a clear definition of transparency and privacy information?

Agree

2(b). Does the distinction between transparency information and privacy information make sense to you?

Yes

3. Do you agree that this guidance provides useful additional information to the Health & Social Care sector that is not part of our existing guidance on the principle of transparency and the right to be informed?

Agree

4. Do you agree that this guidance is balanced between the separate areas of health and social care?

Too focused on health

Please provide any comments you have:

Reason for this response is due to examples all being for Health, maybe add in more Social care examples.

5. Do you agree that the use of the terms must, should and could in this guidance clearly defines the ICO's expectations in the legislative requirements section and that the terms are applied consistently throughout the guidance?

Agree

6. Do you agree with the definitions we have provided on openness and honesty? Are the examples of how you can demonstrate that you are being open and honest useful and accurate in the context of health and care?

Agree

7. Do you agree with that the section on harms is useful for organisations when considering the risks of failing to provide sufficient transparency material?

Strongly agree

8. Do you agree that the section on patient engagement provides useful information to help organisations develop transparency information that responds to people's needs and priorities?

Agree

Please provide any comments you have:

Agree on content but does not stand out in the guidance.

9. Do you agree that the section on providing transparency information sets out clearly how organisations should approach the delivery of transparency and privacy information?

Agree

10. Do you agree that the transparency checklist provides a useful summary of the guidance and a mechanism to assess an organisation's transparency level?

Agree

Please provide any comments you have:

This is very useful to share with staff for their consideration when implementing new processes or systems as it supports what we are telling them.

11. Have you identified any aspects of the guidance that you feel are inaccurate or any areas we have missed or not covered sufficiently? If so, please provide further details.

None identified

13. To what extent do you agree that the impact assessment summary table adequately scopes the main affected groups and associated impacts of the guidance?

Agree

14. Can you provide us with any further evidence for us to consider in our impact assessment?

No

16. Are you acting on behalf of an organisation?

Yes

17. Are you answering as: (tick all that apply)

An organisation or person processing health data

18. Please specify the name of your organisation (optional):

Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board

19. How would you describe your organisation's size?

500 or more members of staff

22. To what extent (if at all) do data protection issues affect strategic or business decisions within your organisation?

Data protection is a major feature in most of our decision making

23. Do you think the guidance set out in this document presents additional:

benefit(s) to your organisation
